

Curated SPACES

CD Luxe – where timeless interiors meet contemporary elegance.

IN THE WORLD OF HIGH-END INTERIOR DESIGN, true luxury lies not only in materials and aesthetics but in the ability to translate a client's vision into a lived experience.

At CD Luxe Interior, this philosophy is woven into every detail, every texture, and every carefully curated corner.

Based in Brisbane and the Gold Coast, and servicing Australia-wide, CD Luxe is recognised for delivering interior living concepts that balance sophistication with soul.

Whether it's a coastal penthouse, a bespoke new build, or a heritage renovation, CD Luxe approaches each project with meticulous attention, artistic flair, and a deep understanding of how people want to live in their space.

Founded by a passionate and creative Director, Cao Dong Pham, CD Luxe believes interiors should elevate your everyday – calming you, inspiring you, and reflecting who you are.

"Understanding aesthetics is very important when it comes to design," says Cao Dong,

"It is critical to integrate trends that create harmony between the architecture, the lifestyle and the feeling you want to have when you walk in the door."

The CD Luxe furniture signature?

A tactile palette of natural finishes, layered textures, custom detailing and statement lighting.

Their spaces feel as good as they look – anchored by functionality, softened by elegance, and elevated through craftsmanship.

Every aspect is considered with design intelligence and creative restraint, from cabinetry and furniture to fabrics and finishes.

2025 sees CD Luxe expanding its portfolio of boutique residential and commercial projects with several high-profile builds across Australia.

The team continue to work closely with architects, builders and artisans to bring each project to life – from initial concept to final styling.

This full-service approach and a warm, collaborative ethos have made them a trusted partner for discerning home owners and developers alike.

For clients who demand more than beautiful spaces – who seek meaning, emotion, and excellence – CD Luxe is the ideal choice.
